Iraq War	Within the first 60 days in office - have the Joint Chiefs, Secretary of Defense and the National Security Council prepare a plan to end our military engagement in Iraq's civil war and immediately start bringing our troops home.	Will immediately begin to remove our troops from Iraq. He will remove one to two combat brigades each month, and have all of our combat brigades out of Iraq within 16 months.
Iraq War	Direct aid to government and non government entities to get the aid in the hands of the Iraqi people.	Engage representatives from all levels of Iraqi society – in and out of government – to seek a new accord on Iraq's Constitution and governance. The United Nations will play a central role in this convention, which should not adjourn until a new national accord is reached addressing tough questions like federalism and oil revenue-sharing.
Iraq War	Support the appointment of a high level U.N. representative to help broker the peace.	Provide at least $2 billion to expand services to Iraqi refugees in neighboring countries, and ensure that Iraqis inside their own country can find a safe-haven.
Iraq War	Convene a regional stabilization group composed of key allies and all of the states bordering Iraq.	Launch the most aggressive diplomatic effort in recent American history to reach a new compact on the stability of Iraq and the Middle East. This effort will include all of Iraq's neighbors – including Iran and Syria. This compact will aim to secure Iraq's borders; keep neighboring countries from meddling inside Iraq; isolate al Qaeda; support reconciliation among Iraq's sectarian groups; and provide financial support for Iraq's reconstruction.

Issue	Hillary Clinton	Barack Obama
Iraq War	Organize a multi-billion dollar international effort for refugees.
Energy Policy - Domestic Oil	Increase fuel standards to 55 MPG by 2030 and $20 billion of "Green Vehicle Bonds" to help U.S. auto makers retool the factories to meet this goal.	Double fuel economy standards within 18 years.
